

Speaker Biography

Steven Simpson
General Counsel
Management Concepts

Steven Simpson is the General Counsel for Management Concepts. In his role, Steven is responsible for directing the legal affairs and strategy for the company. His advice covers the range of the company's internal and external activities, including government contracts, commercial contracts, intellectual property, employment matters, tax, and regulatory compliance.

Steven has been with Management Concepts for more than 20 years. During that time, the company has doubled in size and annually receives tens of millions of dollars in U.S. government contracts.

Steven received a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from the University of Rochester. He graduated summa cum laude from the American University Washington College of Law. He also graduated with highest honors from the George Washington University Law School with a Master of Laws in Government Procurement Law. Steven is currently working on his third law degree at the University of Nottingham in the United Kingdom. He is studying public procurement in the EU and developing countries at Nottingham's School of Law.

Steven is married and has one daughter who attends the Ohio State University. Steven and his family have lived in Washington, DC for more than 20 years. They live in the Glover Park neighborhood of the District of Columbia and are only a 30 minute walk from the Bahrain embassy. Steven is an avid cyclist organizations at United Airlines and Lufthansa. He has an MA in Law and Diplomacy from The Fletcher School at Tufts University, a BA from the University of Virginia, and completed the Program on Negotiation at Harvard Law School.